

Latino College Access and Completion: Voices From the Field

Come join us as we discuss the policy directions that can support Latino students in accessing, succeeding in, and finding success after college. Key factors in Latino college enrollment and persistence will be outlined and discussed by a panel of esteemed policy advocates and educational leaders.

SEPTEMBER 26, 2023
8:00 TO 10:00 AM
AT THE FEDERAL RESERVE
BANK OF CHICAGO

PANELISTS:

Lisa Castillo Richmond, Executive Director, The Partnership for College Completion
Andres López, graduate student, MEd/EdS in School Psychology at Loyola University Chicago
Lazaro López, Ed.D., Associate Superintendent for Teaching and Learning, High School District 214
Patricia Mota, President and CEO, The Hispanic Alliance for Career Enhancement (HACE)
Juan Salgado, Chancellor, City Colleges of Chicago

Livestream and translation in Spanish will be available.

Register at Latinocollege.eventbrite.com

STATE GOVERNMENT ID REQUIRED FOR ENTRY.
ALLOW 30 MINUTES TO PASS THROUGH SECURITY.