Libraries

If you have obtained a library card, checked out books, visited the library, or used other library resources, you may be able to ask your library for a record of your visits. You may also obtain records of the resources you have used, including books, audio materials, internet, etc. The library also retains records of community programs including the Adult Literacy Program, the Adult, Youth, and Teen Summer Reading Programs, and other event-based programs. If you have partaken in any of these events/programs, you may be able to ask the library for a record of your participation.

You may also choose to use your local library for information-gathering purposes. You can access periodicals, novels, and e-resources. If you do not have access to internet at home, you may also be able to sign up for internet time at your local library.

Office of the Public Defender

If you have ever been a criminal defendant arrested for a felony or misdemeanor, and utilized the Public Defender's services, you may be able to obtain documents from the Office of the Public Defender. The Public Defender keeps records of court dates, and has cases on file. If you need to explain what an arrest is for or why you've been in court as a criminal defendant, you can contact the Office of the Public Defender. You may choose to use the Public Defender as a resource if you are implicated in a crime, for which you are given a court date.

Sheriff's Office

The Sheriff's Office has numerous files on record. If you have ever filed a commendation for an employee, complaint against Sheriff's Personnel, crime tip, criminal complaint, freedom of information request, order of protection, or if you have reported a crime or accident, you can request these files. The Records Section of the Sheriff's Office maintains information that has passed through the Sheriff's Office, including visa letters, traffic reports, burglaries, domestic batteries, and sex offender registration. If any of the above categories are pertinent to you, you can contact the Records Department for documentation.

SCHOOLS

If you attended or have a child/children that attended school in Lake County, you may be able to obtain records indicating your/your child's involvement in school. You may ask for transcripts to prove that you/your child has attended classes, awards records, or introductory language classes at your local community college.

Transcripts must be requested at the individual schools. Schools will determine if there is a fee or not for the transcript certificate of attendance. You may also request certificates of attendance and transcripts from your community college.
